Today in the Ausseerland

Ausseer Lebzelterei

The Ausseer Lebzelterei in Bad Aussee is known for its traditional gingerbread, a handmade product with a long history and unique taste. Visitors have the opportunity to experience the art of gingerbread making up close, enjoy the sweet smell of freshly baked delicacies and taste the handmade specialties directly on site. A treat for all the senses and a special experience for young and old!

Local History Collection of the Strick Family

The Strick Local History Collection in Bad Mitterndorf, which has been awarded the Austrian Museum Seal of Quality, grew out of Franz Strick's mineral collection, which grew over generations and is now run by his daughter. The museum displays a historical library, minerals, votive pictures, the masks of the Santa Claus play and a large private nativity scene. During the Christmas season, the house becomes a nativity scene exhibition.

Ödensee

Lake Ödensee is a typical forest moorland lake, surrounded by dense forest and lush shoreline vegetation. A striking feature of this lake is its exclusively underground inflow. In summer, the Ödensee is a popular bathing lake for locals and visitors alike.
