Today in the Ausseerland

Altaussee Salzwelten (Salt Mine)

The Altaussee Salt Mine, the largest active salt mine in Austria, offers a fascinating combination of mining history and the exciting story of stolen Nazi art. In deep tunnels and a mystical chapel, courageous miners rescued European works of art. A highlight for families are the children's tours with Sally, the clever mining duck.

Eder - Gifts

At Geschenke Eder in Grundlsee you will find lovingly handmade products. One highlight is the Ausseer Wadsack - a traditional rucksack for everyday use, hiking or traditional costume. Each piece is individually crafted and reflects the charm of the region. Discover treasures that combine tradition and quality.

Ice rink at the Kulm

Next to the ice rink, there is a store with ice skating, cross-country skiing and snowshoe hire, as well as the "Kulm snack bar" with drinks and snacks. Changing facilities with showers are also available. The ice rink has its own lighting and is open daily until 6 p.m. during the vacation season.
