Today in the Ausseerland

Boulderbox Bad Mitterndorf

Bouldering is climbing without a rope and harness on boulders, rock faces or in the climbing gym at jump height.

There are six abseiling points in the climbing box, which are color-coded with several routes. In the bouldering area, there are several routes of varying difficulty, from threes to tens. There is also a campus board for ambitious climbers to optimize their finger strength.

Don't worry, there is a 30 centimeter thick mat on the floor for safety.
