Today in the Ausseerland

Altaussee Museum of Literature

The newly designed Altaussee Literature Museum showcases literary personalities, original artefacts such as the Herzl bicycle and Torberg's voice. Complemented by local history and Jandl's curiosities, it offers highlights for literature lovers with English display boards and a bookshop.

Center stone in the spa park Bad Aussee

In the spa gardens of Bad Aussee, an impressive marble stone marks the geographical center of Austria. Surrounded by majestic chestnut trees and close to the statue of Archduke Johann, this special place makes for an unforgettable visit.

After your visit, you can purchase a certificate from the Bad Aussee tourist office confirming your visit to the geographical center of Austria.

Church Bad Mitterndorf

The parish church of Bad Mitterndorf, dedicated to St. Margaret, is one of the oldest places of worship in the Ausseerland Salzkammergut. Presumably built on a pre-Christian place of worship, it combines historical architecture with a long religious tradition and is an important landmark in the region.
